BACON BITS

SERIES NOTES: Rockford posted the second-most wins against Grand Rapids in a single season in franchise history last year with a 6-3-1-0 mark against the club. That record trailed only a 7-0-0-1 clip in the series during the 2009-10 season. Three of five home games against Grand Rapids went to the shootout last season, with the IceHogs winning each of the three games while holding the Griffins to 0-for-10 in shootout attempts.

NOT-SO-GRAND RAPIDS: The IceHogs went unbeaten in their five home games against Grand Rapids in 2017-18, marking the most home victories in a single season against the Griffins. The IceHogs have now won six straight home games against Grand Rapids dating to the final meeting of the 2016-17 season. Rockford has outscored the Griffins 24-12 at home in that span.

BEAST MASTER: Anthony Louis snapped a nine-game point streak against Grand Rapids in this season's series opener on Nov. 14. The forward finished last season with 11 total points (2g, 9a) in nine games against the Griffins, which were the most for an IceHogs skater against any team in a single season since Vinnie Hinostroza's 14 points in 10 games against Milwaukee in 2015-16.

USE THE FORS: Anton Forsberg enters tonight seeking his first home win of the 2018-19 season. He is unbeaten on the road for the IceHogs, going 4-0-0 away from the BMO, but takes the ice Friday winless in three home starts. Overall, Forsberg has limited opponents to two or fewer goals in six of his first seven AHL appearances thus far this year.

CHUCKIN' DEUCES: The IceHogs have limited opponents to two or fewer goals in half of their first 24 games this season. In addition, Rockford has allowed more than three goals in only five games on the year, and only once at the BMO (7-2 loss vs. Chicago on Nov. 23). The Hogs enter Friday ranked seventh in the AHL with an average of just 2.88 goals allowed per game.

KILLING THEM SOFTLY: Rockford has killed off each of the last 14 opposing power plays over the last four games. Rockford is second in the AHL with an 87.1 efficiency on the PK, and has only once allowed more than one power-play goal in a game. The Hogs also enter Friday ranked second in the AHL with a 91.7 efficiency on home ice with just three PPGs in 36 times shorthanded at the BMO.

CAPTAIN CLUTCH: Dylan Sikura netted the game-winner in overtime during Rockford's most recent game against San Antonio. Sikura now leads the team and paces all AHL rookies with three game-winning goals this season. In addition, his three GWGs through 24 contests also match last year's team-leading total (four skaters), and are more than any skater during the 2016-17 season. The last Hogs player with more than three GWGs in a single season is Bryan Bickell in 2015-16.
