BACON BITS

SERIES NOTES: The IceHogs host Manitoba for the first time this season after sweeping the Moose in four games during the Division Finals of the 2018 Calder Cup Playoffs...The road team won each of the four games and scored at least four goals in each of the four games in last season's series... With losses in each of its two home games in the series last season, the IceHogs enter Sunday on a four-game skid at home against Manitoba.

SPLIT THE DIFFERENCE: Rockford has won seven of its last eight road games at Manitoba during the regular season, boasting a 7-1-0-0 record over that span. Conversely, the IceHogs have just two wins in their last 13 home games against the Moose (2-9-1-1 since 2009-10).

STREAKS SNAPPED: The IceHogs began their five-game point streak and three-game home winning streak after bouncing back from back-to-back losses against the Monsters...Rockford booked its streaks with losses to Cleveland, and has now suffered all three of its regulation losses to the Monsters.

VICTOR-IOUS: Victor Ejdsell notched points in three of four playoff games against Manitoba last season, potting three goals and tallying an assist in the series...Ejdsell ultimately helped seal the series sweep by netting the game-winning goal in both Game 3 and Game 4 against the Moose.

ON THE EJD OF GLORY: Ejdsell also tallied Rockford's lone goal in Saturday's contest against Cleveland to break up a shutout in the third period...The forward has scored goals in back-to-back games and is just one marker shy of the team lead (Tyler Sikura, 4 goals)...Including the 2018 postseason, Ejdsell has now totaled 10 goals over his last 18 contests with three multi-goal efforts.

HOME IS WHERE THE HIGHMORE IS: Matthew Highmore notched an assists last night to extend his home point streak to each of Rockford's first four home games...Highmore has logged six of his first seven points this season on home ice, combining for two goals and four assists at the BMO...He led the team in scoring at home (25 points) last year and has now combined for 31 points (17g, 14a) in 37 home games with the IceHogs.

THIS IS JUST GETTING RIDICULOUS: Collin Delia won his fourth straight game Wednesday to improve to 4-1-0...Delia now boasts a 14-2-2 record over his last 18 regular-season games and has not suffered back-to-back regulation losses since Jan. 2 & 5 of last season (28 consecutive appearances).

CENTRAL CASTING: Rockford faces off against a Central Division opponent for the third time this season...The IceHogs are 2-0-0-0 against division foes in 2018-19 and have wins in 10 of the last 13 games against Central Division teams dating to March 11 last season.
