GAME NOTES

- TODAY'S MATCHUP: The IceHogs have won just one of the last six road games against the Rampage since the 2016-17 season, notching the lone victory on April 4, 2018 (4-2 win). Despite dropping Saturday's game 2-1, Rockford has held the Rampage to two goals in each of the last three meetings. The IceHogs have outscored San Antonio 10-6 over that span.
- SAN AN STALEMATE: The IceHogs and Rampage have combined to kill off 16 of 18 power-play opportunities through two games in the 2018-19 series. Each team has killed off all but one of the opposition's PP chances in that span, with Rockford's PK going 6-for-7 and San Antonio at 10-for-11.
- HOME ON THE RANGE: With Rockford winning its lone home game in the series against San Antonio this season and the Rampage winning Saturday's contest at AT&T Center, the home team has now won nine of the last 11 games in the series. Rockford is 4-1-0-0 at home in that span, while San Antonio is 5-1-0-0 at home during that stretch.
- STRAIGHT KILLAS: Rockford has only once allowed more than one PPG in a game in 2018-19 (Oct. 19 at TUC, 2 PPGs). The Hogs enter Tuesday boasting the fourth-best PK in the AHL at 86.1 percent, and have allowed the eighth-fewest power-play goals (11) in the league.
- A LITTLE OFFENSIVE: Rockford has scored just one goal in each of its last three games since Nov. 14, and has been held to one or no goals in eight of 18 total games during the 2018-19 season. Rockford enters the week ranked 30th out of 31 teams in overall scoring (2.50 goals/game) behind only San Antonio (2.12 goals/game).

The San Antonio Rampage currently rank eighth in the Central Division, but claimed back-to-back wins for the first time this season with their most recent 2-1 victory over the IceHogs. San Antonio is currently last in the AHL with an average of just 2.12 goals per game, and has a logjam of five players leading the team in scoring with eight points apiece.

WHO'S HOT?

JORDAN SCHROEDER
#10

AGE	POS	GP	G	A	PIM	+/-
28	F	9	4	2	2	-4

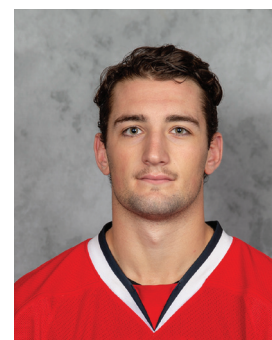

Schroeder has scored a goal in four of the last six games and has totaled six points this season. Despite playing in just nine contests, Schroeder is only two goals shy of the team lead of six markers in 2018-19.

LUCAS CARLSSON
#23

AGE	POS	GP	G	A	PIM	+/-
21	D	18	2	6	8	-4

Carlsson finished last week as the IceHogs' lone skater with more than one point. The rookie defenseman tallied a pair of assists on the week and has now found the scoresheet in five of his last seven contests.

DENNIS GILBERT
#8

AGE	POS	GP	G	A	PIM	+/-
22	D	12	0	1	14	-1

Gilbert is second among all IceHogs defencemen with a +2 rating in the month of November. The blueliner posted an even-or-better plus/minus rating in seven straight games prior to snapping that streak on Saturday.
