GAME NOTES

- SERIES NOTES: The IceHogs have won just one of the last seven road games against the Rampage since the 2016-17 season, notching the lone victory on April 4, 2018 (4-2 win). Rockford has held San Antonio to two or fewer goals in three of four games this season and five of the last seven meetings dating to Feb. 7, 2018. San Antonio has outshot the Hogs in each of the four meetings this season.
- COMIN' IN HOT: The IceHogs scored a goal in the first period against Texas last night, marking the team's first first-period tally since Dec. 28 vs. Chicago. Rockford now boasts points in 13 of 17 games when scoring at least one goal in the first period with a 10-4-0-3 record in such games.
- KID SIKKI: Dylan Sikura reached double-digit goals for his rookie campaign with his 10th marker of the season last night in Texas. Sikura has three points (1g, 2a) in two games since returning from Chicago, and six points (4g, 2a) in his last five AHL games overall.
- POWERED UP: The IceHogs scored multiple power-play goals for just the fifth time this season last night at Texas. Each of those five games with multiple PPGs have been on the road, including a season-high three PPGs on Oct. 20 at Tucson.
- SCHROEDER'S SPECIALTY: Jordan Schroeder picked up an assist on the power play last night and has now tallied more than half of his 20 total points while on the power play. Schroder has combined for 11 power-play points with four PPGs and seven PP assists, each of which leads the team.
